

social media websites and apps are just like other websites. they have many advantages such as meeting new people, talking to celebrities, and reading the news as they happen. however, they have many disadvantages such as people use them to trick other people, people use them for long hours, and other people use fake accounts to do prohibited activities