University life is the golden time that a person lives in at the beginning of his youth, and he still remembers every moment of it throughout his life, and he can never forget it, and that stage may be two, three, or four years, and then the day of graduation comes One of the most distinguishing features of that stage is that it is the stage of freedom, in which students do not feel afraid of teachers, teachers behave in a nice way, and every student tries to develop his skills, and every student can go freely to the university library, canteen or playground when they are free .Another beautiful aspect of university life is the tours and sports activities.They are very happy occasions.They are unforgettable moments in students' lives.Students enjoy a lot.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com