

ship sailing up the River Thames. I live silent and daug rowin T iron and fathe Old John Harmon had made a very strange will. I live silent and daug rowin T iron and fathe Old John Harmon had made a very strange will. they boat The shou heav that The give 2 When I know what Bella is like, I can decide what to do. John Harmon told himself. they boat The shou heav that The give 2 When I know what Bella is like, I can decide what to do. John Harmon told himself. Young John Harmon, unhappy and without a friend, had told his story to George Radfoot, a sailor on the ship. two young George Radfoot was going to help John Harmon disguise himself. Then Harmon would hide for a time and find out what kind of girl Bella Wilfer was. Young John Harmon, unhappy and without a friend, had told his story to George Radfoot, a sailor on the ship. two young George Radfoot was going to help John Harmon disguise himself. Then Harmon would hide for a time and find out what kind of girl Bella Wilfer was. ship sailing up the River Thames. ab My father was always unkind to me when I was a child. But only if he agreed to marry a girl called Bella Wilfer. Then I shall go to Mr Lightwood, my father's lawyer, and tell him who I am. The young man looked at the dark, dirty buildings on both sides of the river. One was John Harmon and the other was George Radfoot. John Harmon asked himself.