

Prince Majed Park in Jeddah is my favorite park in Saudi Arabia because it combines beauty, comfort, and fun. Another reason it is my favorite is that it has walking paths and playgrounds, so both adults and children can have fun. I like this park because it has large green areas where people can relax and enjoy nature. It is also clean and well organized, which makes visiting it comfortable and enjoyable.