

Ahmed: Where are you going to live when you start college in the fall? Ahmed: You are clearly out of touch with rental prices! is iste Hameed: I don't want to live on campus. There's too much noise when you're trying to study, and there aren't enough places to go when you want to socialize. And, of course, it has to have a washer and dryer. Ahmed: We're talking megabucks—maybe fifteen grand a month. Hameed: Fifteen thousand riyals? Hameed: Well, maybe I shouldn't be in such a rush to move out. Ahmed: Cool! Hameed: Well, I'm hoping to find a large, modern place with an extra bedroom for visitors.