

It is an independent entity that includes a number of health facilities at different levels that aiming to provide integrated, self-operating health care.