

I can't understand you, there is also a risk of other psychological problems such as depression and suicidal feelings, what if our friend reached this situation??