

?Shopping is the activity of buying things such as food, stationery, clothes and furniture. There are two different kinds of shopping, online shopping and real shopping, but for each one of them are advantages and disadvantage