

Life in space is certainly very different to life on Earth. There are spoons, but there aren't any forks or knives because all the food is wet. The astronauts have disposable clothes so there isn't a washing machine, either! The astronauts have a special vacuum cleaner with a long pipe for 'catching' the dust. There are a lot of chores that astronauts have to do...