This online voting system offers a secure and user-friendly platform for internet-based elections. Voters register and log in to participate and view results. Election officials can manage all aspects, including adding candidates and monitoring results. High security ensures vote confidentiality and accessibility across various devices.