

SPORTS I love sports and many of them: the first sport is basketball, which is a game of sports, plays in the game two tries each to make the largest number of points. The nature of play is involved in the game, two each consisting of one each of the eleven players (ten players and guard goalkeeper). In each group, there are five players, and they are divided on several points. The second is the sports football. I love sports