

God recognize humans from other creatures by reason. Throughout human history, man has used his mind to build civilizations and discover science, but on the other hand, there have been negatives to using the mind. The human mind has great power that cannot be measured, which makes us stand in awe of God's power.