c u t e wound healing is the normal orderly process that occurs after injury and often require ractitioner intervention.	es minimal