

Every society forms its own view of structure of the universe according to its needs .Because both groups believed that the gods could see everything they placed them in locations where this was possible