

I think eating fruits is very important and very good for us because they help our bodies stay healthy and give us energy to do many things every day.