My father, a man with a great personality and great thoughts, taught me deciplins and importance of life.He is 6 feet tall and has a mustache.He gave a lot of sacrifices for his family, turning down all those pretty women would be considered as a big sacrifice.He sent his brothers abroad for higher education.Worked many hours to help them pay for studies.He continued to sacrifice for us as well.He really emphasized on education from the very beginning.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com