

Self-parking car utilizes advanced technology and software to automate and assist in parking, it uses a combination of hardware and software that enable precise movements and provide a magnified 2D display in parking slots to parkin it. Self- parking car equipped with cameras and sensors allow remote monitoring and interaction with drivers.