2.The role and responsibilities of a workplace diversity coordinator include: - Developing and implementing diversity and inclusion initiatives and programs within the organization.- Collaborating with HR and management to develop policies and practices that promote diversity and prevent discrimination.- Monitoring and analyzing diversity metrics and trends within the organization to identify areas for improvement.- Conducting diversity training and workshops to educate employees about the importance of diversity and inclusion.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com