

Digital citizenship is the responsible and ethical use of technology and digital platforms by individuals.