

There is no doubt that the UAE has exceeded the ambition of the smart government by raising the ceiling of aspirations to rely entirely on artificial intelligence in promoting development and progress, and it has become a leading model that must be followed. Development, to reach the future, improve government performance, accelerate achievement, and create sustainable environments ML is an innovative and promising new market in the region with high economic value. UAE Centennial 2071.