

The topic explains the main challenges faced by host countries such as Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey and Iraq due to the large influx of Syrian refugees as a result of the violence in Syria due to the war. Approximately 400,000 Syrian refugees, as well as Palestinian refugees, Iraqis and Sudanese, entered Jordan, increasing conflict among themselves, which is a major burden for Jordan with limited resources that cannot meet the basic needs of all refugees such as housing, education, health.