

VALUES, ETHICS AND ADVOCACY VALUES Values: are freely chosen, enduring beliefs or attitudes about the worth of a person, object, idea, or action.* Values consist of beliefs and attitudes, which are related, but not identical, to values. Beliefs are interpretations or conclusions that people accept as true. A values set: is the small group of values held by an individual. Beliefs do not necessarily involve values.