

Nutrition Diagnoses Include insufficient or excessive energy intake, suboptimal predicted energy intake, inadequate oral intake, malnutrition, inadequate vitamin or mineral intake (ketogenic diet or certain antiepileptic drugs) as well as food–drug interactions, altered nutritional laboratory values, underweight, unintentional weight gain/loss, and overweight/obesity.