

– Positive Indicators.– Overall Outlook – With comprehensive rehabilitation, H.L. will likely regain functional independence.– Challenges – Cognitive deficits (e.g., disorientation, memory impairment) and behavioral problems (e.g., aggression) may require long-term rehabilitation.– Balance and motor coordination deficits may indicate cerebellar or diffuse motor control lesions, which may result in slower recovery.