the selected protein 3s7s represents the crystal structure of the human placentalany proposed biologically active compound.Five ligands possess an appreciable extent of interactions with the receptor protein based on the scoring energy .The scoring energy of each pose simulated by the docking calculations reflects the degree of inhibition effect of the corresponding ligand.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com