

The Brave Grandfather In a rural city in Brazil, there was a group of children playing together. By chance, the boy's 76 year old grandfather heard his grandson screaming and went to his rescue and began a deadly struggle with the anaconda, in which the grandfather won with a deep knife stab and enabled him to eliminate it. This accident had a great reputation in Brazil, and this terrifying situation made clear the grandfather's love for his grandson. Suddenly, a huge anaconda attacked one of the children who was less than 8 years old, and the child began to cry and scream, and the boys were looking for someone to help their friend.
