

A hurricane is a very powerful rotating storm also known as a typhoon or Cyclone these storms can be huge, creating immense damage, these storms usually occur in American, the Gulf of Mexico and the caribbean..A storm is usually classified hurricane when the wind speed reaches over 74 miles per (force 12).reaching 122 miles per hour, Technically the storm was not a hurricane but millions of trees were uprooted, roads were blocked with fallen trees and hundreds of homes lost the their roofsThe uk doesnot usually have hurricane storms, the worst storm in the UK since 1703 happend in 1987.A hurricane is accompanied with heavy rain fall.