

This story began long ago in the year 1009, when it was said that there was hidden treasure in the lost city of Rusaka, in the country of India, and for hundreds of years people mistakenly believed that it would be easy to find them, but they were wrong, everyone who went to find the treasure never returned. Below is a place of worship that must go. The first clue led to the underwater caves, fountains and temples. Tom ran without delay to his grandfather's house to ask about the treasure and the lost city of Rosaka, and his grandfather John Morris Poplinock smiled boredom and opened a small silver box he kept under his bed, handing Tom a sheet of plain paper and a pair of oddly shaded green and red glasses. On October 21, he found the lost city, under the rubble of a cathedral, and dark narrow corridors leading him down; Read the latest guide: Pass your reflection you will see the portal of the Land of Opportunity Lanes lead him to a dead end, and Tom was very frustrated. He kicked the wall in front of him revealing the magic mirror, and Tom reached the magic mirror, fell through it and landed on a mountain of gold and lost jewels, and I can't tell you more than necessary ... let's just say that Tom Poplenook will never be sad again, and he was happy to spend fortunes On his family and himself. Look for the treasure.
