

–Neglecting the healthy and nutritional aspect in the advertisement speech –The consumer is fascinated by the advertisement and the acquisition of products that are not good or are indispensable –The prevalence of improper habits and behaviors in society due to some of the advertisement images and the low-level advertisements that children and adolescents like.