

1. Environmental Conservation: Traditional practices often include sustainable methods that are beneficial for the environment. Festivals like the Sheikh Zayed Heritage Festival and museums like the Louvre Abu Dhabi draw visitors from around the world, promoting cultural tourism⁶. In the UAE, traditional clothing like the kandura and abaya, as well as practices such as falconry and camel racing, are integral to Emirati identity¹. The UAE's heritage sites, such as Al Ain Oasis and the Al Fahidi Historic District, offer insights into the nation's past^{6,2,3,4,5}.
