

But that wasn't enough for those Palestinian men, women and children. Didn't just mean that 78% of historic Palestine had been taken from its natives. It signaled over 70 years of occupation, home demolitions, arbitrary arrests, displacements, Israeli expansion, military checkpoints, construction of walls, discrimination, massacres, and bombing of innocent men, women, and children in their own. See, the creation of the state of Israel didn't just mean that 1.9 million Palestinians were forced out of their homes. Didn't just mean that 530 villages and cities were destroyed and ethnically cleansed. They had to be ethnically cleansed from their lands and driven into near total destruction.
