

To have a healthy and fit body, the doctor always recommends eating some vegetables daily because they are very important for weight loss, heart disease prevention and diabetes prevention.