

Here we see that the force vector is the product of its magnitude,  $F_g$ , and its direction,  $-\hat{y}$ . The magnitude  $F_g$  is called the weight of the object.