They are security and security.The awakened person is the only one who preserves this country and protects it from betrayals and various crimes such as murder, theft, traffic accidents, and others.It is also important that they do not accept bribes, because if they accept them, they become like any violator among the people, and their punishment may be greater, because they are among the people obligated to protect society from all kinds of dangers and violations that may occur.They are the protectors of the land and the knights of the homelands.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com