

Abstract This study exposes the spatial contradictory of scales and fields of living level for the western and eastern quarters of the city. It is also exposed that the highest deprivation percentage of the living level was in western Sikak quarter is (35.8%), then Al-Qattanah quarter (33.5%), AL-Tawassu'a quarter comes after with (33.1%), while according to the general guide of the living level in AL-Taquadum, AL-Andalus and AL-Jumhuri quarters consequently scales the least deprivation percentage (9.6%, 10.5%, 16%). These fields consist of six subfields: education, hospitality, dwelling, surroundings, economic state, and infrastructure, in addition to the general guide of living level that these six fields represent.