

The teacher provokes the children by asking some questions: Where do you live, .....Do we all have homes?Why do we need housing?Do you think the animals have homes?If the animals do not have homes, what will happen to them?Where does this sparrow live?What is the name of his residence?From what do you think the bird builds the nest?How does a sparrow build its nest?The teacher shows a picture of a bird, for example, and then asks them what are you watching?