

A solar car is a special type of car that uses the sun's energy to operate. In addition, a solar car provides a solution to high fuel prices as it can move using free sunlight instead of purchasing fuel. The solar car helps solve the pollution problem because it does not release harmful gases while driving. It is related to Industry.