

A pastoral society: is a society that depends on domestic animals for its livelihood. A horticultural society: is a society in which hand tools are used to grow domesticated crops.