

Do you think providing your employees with a dedicated parking space is more trouble than it's worth? So, focus on implementing a parking management system to boost employee morale and bid farewell to your parking problems. Some features offered by Parkable include: EV charger management Automatic number plate recognition Visitor parking Occupancy tracking Parking sharing Visitor parking Parkable provides a fair and equitable way to allocate scarce parking resources and improves employee morale. With employees spending 90.5 hours per year just for looking a parking spot, offering a parking solution offers many benefits: Improves employee retention Enhances employee morale Saves employee's time Saves cost employees spend on additional gas Ensures the security of employees' vehicles To ensure your employees spend those 90.5 hours every year doing something productive, you need to solve their parking issues. Apart from helping employees find a parking space, most PMS offers: Data and reporting tools Help digitize car park access Monitor the environmental impact of employees' commuting habits Pro-tip: Automated parking systems like the PMS reduce your company's carbon footprint, making you a sustainable brand. Some critical features offered by VersionX include: Slot per vehicle type Live parking reports Auto-generated passes Access control system Slots on LED display Periodic patrolling Pricing: Contact customer care to learn about the pricing.