

?volcanoes—their historical timeline for activity, how we can better predict future activity, and, most importantly, what people can do to prepare for an eruption.