

The Al-Ruwais district in Jeddah features a diverse architectural style, blending modern technology with traditional elements. This mix reflects the ongoing development and transformation of the area. The district offers a variety of residential options, including apartments for rent, which are highly sought-after in this rapidly growing region.