GMP compliance in facility design is not a linear process but a continuous lifecycle.Facility design establishes the physical infrastructure and environment; cGMP operational standards govern how that environment is used; and pharmaceutical quality represents the outcome –– a consistently safe and effective product.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com