Slide 3 – What is Semantics?Slide 4 – Sentence, Utterance, Proposition Activity 2 – Classify the examples Label each as Sentence (S), Utterance (U), or Proposition (P): 1.Activity 1 – Sentence meaning vs. Speaker meaning Decide if the following are Sentence meaning (SM) or Speaker meaning (SPM): 1."The capital of the UK" / "London" Slide 6 – Ambiguity Activity 5 – Lexical ambiguity Each word below has at least two meanings."I'll be back later.""It's raining outside."(just stating a fact about the weather)."I love exams."(said sarcastically by a student).(written in a storybook).(said by a mother to her child, meaning 'wait at home').2."Can you pass the salt?"(used at the dinner table to make a request).3.4.The cat is sleeping.2."The morning star" / "The evening star" 2.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com