

My overall experience was good, but I felt like they discharged me too quickly. I received brochures about breastfeeding, but the experience is completely different as a first-time mom, especially when you are having difficulty producing milk or when the milk has just started and the baby is crying. One night wasn't enough, and I asked for an extra night because I didn't know how to take good care of my baby yet.