

From this training, I learned how to prepare disbursement and receipt vouchers, cash and checks, sales and purchase orders, refund vouchers, journal entries, and recording in accounting books (American journal and subsidiary ledger), preparing payroll statements and their related entries, tax returns, preparing trial balances, participating in the preparation of financial statements according to Egyptian accounting standards, and other various accounting operations.