

The most positive aspect of working in CRITD is the team's supportive and kind behavior in all situations, both work-related and personal. I particularly appreciate the chance to tackle diverse topics and help people find solutions. Providing useful information is incredibly rewarding.