

The elderly can be a role model for the younger generation. They can help in spreading knowledge. In conclusion, we must care, love and respect the elderly.