

The Kingdom achieved an increase in exports of dates and their derivatives during the year 2022, with a quantity exceeding (321) thousand tons and a value amounting to (1.28) billion riyals, an increase. The Ministry of Environment, Water and Agriculture explained that the Kingdom produces more than (300) varieties of dates, the most famous of which are (Sukkari, Khalas, Ajwa, Sagai, and Al-Safari), with a production exceeding (1.6) million tons annually. The Ministry indicated that the focus on marketing dates is in partnership with the private sector, developing draft marketing standards for date varieties, and improving the quality of dates according to market requirements. Globalization.