

I was a scout leader from the first grade until the sixth grade and I also have experience working with children, as I volunteered at a summer camp last year.