Smoking is one of the biggest causes of death and illness worldwide. Quitting smoking is crucial due to its association with various health risks1. Additionally, it harms the heart, mouth, lungs, and blood circulation.